

"Only one license tax shall be collected from the same person or firm if the business embraced both that of a manufacturer, merchant or trader.

"The time for collecting the license taxes herein provided for, shall be from the first to the twentieth of July.

"Every person subject to such tax who shall fail to pay the same within the twenty days specified shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars, to be sued for before any Justice of the Peace of the county by the sheriff and for the benefit of the sheriff; and for the collection of every license tax herein provided for the sheriff shall be entitled to receive a fee of twenty-five cents to be paid by the licensee."

Mr. Butler moved to amend the amendment of Mr. Bellamy as follows:

By adding at the end of line eight: "Provided, his stock of goods shall be less than one thousand dollars, and five dollars if his stock shall be over one thousand dollars."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Aycock demanded the previous question on the substitute. The call was sustained.

Mr. Twitty demanded the ayes and noes, which were ordered, and the amendment was lost, ayes 6, noes 32, as follows:
